

Hogg Mine, LaGrange, Georgia
LETTER OF AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

Gentlemen:

In consideration of your providing me with access to your property, as indicated below, for the purposes of a field trip, I hereby acknowledge, confirm, and agree that at all times while I am on or about the property, I am there at my own risk and will exercise the highest degree of care for my own personal safety and the safety of others. I will be very careful not to damage your property or any machinery, equipment, buildings or structures thereon.

Moreover, I, for myself, my heirs, administrators, executors and assigns, hereby now and forever full and unconditionally, release you, your successors and assigns from any and all liability of every kind or character which I may have or because of or on account of, all damages, causes or actions, claims, demands, losses, injuries, to persons or property which result from or which may hereinafter arise out of or in connection with my presence or activities on or about your property. Moreover, I further agree for myself, my heirs and personal representatives to refrain from bringing any suit or proceeding at law or in equity against you or your successors or assigns or any of your or their respective officers, directors, employees or agents in respect to any matter within the scope of the foregoing release. By signing below I agree not to file any type of civil or criminal proceedings against all landowners and dig organizers concerning the dig. I have signed and delivered this Letter Agreement and Release this _____ day of _____, 20____.
